Meredith Village Savings Bank to Sponsor the Runaway Pumpkin 10K and 5K Run/Walk

Meredith Village Savings Bank (MVSBL) will be this year's photo sponsor for the 3rd annual Runaway Pumpkin 10K and 5K Run/Walk. The event will be held Saturday morning, October 14th at 9 AM, with both courses beginning on North Main Street in Laconia (Rt. 106) near the Smith Track at Opechee Park.

A community fundraising effort led by the employees of the Laconia Clinic, the Runaway Pumpkin benefits the WOW Trail and the Greater Lakes Region Children's Auction. "We are very grateful to MVSBL for sponsoring the Runaway Pumpkin again," said Gretchen Gandini, Executive Director of the WOW Trail. "The bank has been incredibly generous and supportive of both the WOW Trail and Children's Auction over the years and we're thankful for their dedication to the wellbeing of our community."

"We're honored to continue supporting the Runaway Pumpkin on behalf of the WOW Trail and Children's Auction," said Rick Wyman, President of Meredith Village Savings Bank. "Both organizations have done incredible work for the community."

The WOW Trail improves the quality of life for local citizens and contributes to the economic vitality of the Lakes Region. We've also been proud supporters of the Children's Auction since its inception more than 35 years ago. I continue to be amazed by the Auction's extraordinary fundraising efforts for such worthy organizations like the Boys and Girls Club, Lakes Region Child Care Services, the Salvation Army, St. Vincent de Paul and many others dedicated to helping children and families in the area."

The WOW Trail is a paved, 10 foot wide, multi-use pathway built within the railroad right-of-way in the City of Laconia. Its mission is to promote, design, build and maintain a nine-mile recreational path through the City as part of the regional trail network that will eventually connect Meredith to Franklin. Currently 2.5 miles long, the trail is well-used by runners, walkers and bikers, travelling from Elm Street in Lakeport to the Belmont town line and connecting to the new 1.7 mile Winnisquam Scenic Trail. For more information, visit wowtrail.org.

Founded in 1982, the Greater Lakes Region Charitable Auction helps local children and families in need. A spirit-filled fundraiser and holiday tradition, the Children's Auction has raised more than $4.5 million dollars to support local charities through volunteer efforts, community donations and corporate sponsorships.

Laconia Fire Department

Laconia, Gilford, and Meredith Fire Departments were dispatched to Parade Road just after noon on Monday, October 2 for a report of smoke coming from a building. Chief Erickson was first on the scene to find fire coming from a one and a half story farmhouse. The building, an old post and beam constructed farmhouse approximately 90 feet long, was located at the corner of Pickerel Pond Road.

The heavy fire was eventually knocked down and crews went inside to stop the fire from spreading through the walls and ceilings. Fire trucks shuttled water from a hydrant at Elm Street. It was a long process as the original home was built in the early 1800s and had several additions. The fire was under control around 1:20 pm and crews remained on the scene until 4:00 pm. Laconia Police diverted traffic around the scene for several hours. The home sustained major damage but there were no injuries. The owner was away at the time of the fire.

*Resident Lecture Series:
Storyteller James Brewer II*

Taylor Community Resident James Brewer II began his storytelling career at the Pasquaney Inn on Newfound Lake in 1985. At that time, he was still a distinguished English teacher at Holderness School.

After he retired from teaching, Brewer became increasingly well known as a storyteller, performing at area schools and campgrounds, heading up the U.S. Forest Service's "Woods in Winter" storytelling program as well as leading a group for Dartmouth's Institute for Life-Long Education.

Brewer brings his skills to Taylor Community's Woodside Building Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 6:30 p.m. for a presentation entitled, "Streaking Remembered: Summer Camp 1946, and Untold WWII Story and Bits and Pieces." This event is free and open to the public.

St. Paul's Trio in Concert at Taylor Community Oct. 22

The 2017 Taylor Concert Series continues with the St. Paul's Trio. The trio features Zoia Bologovsky on violin, Pianist Paul Dykstra and Orlando Pandolfi on horn. The event is Sunday, Oct. 22 at 3 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building and is free and open to the public. Featured music will include selections by Brahms, Dvorak and Hindemith.

Bologovsky is a graduate of the Julliard School. Currently she is Concertmaster of the North Shore Philharmonic, MetroWest Symphony and the Portsmouth Symphony. She also teaches at St. Paul's School, Concord, the Cooperative Middle School, Stratham, and in her private studio in Stoneham, MA.

Originally from Edmonton, Alberta, Dykstra studied at the University of Alberta, under Helmut Brauss. Since moving to the U.S. in 1999, he has continued to perform extensively as a soloist and duo pianist/chamber musician in addition to teaching in his private studio in Portsmouth, NH and at St. Paul's School in Concord.

Pandolfi has been an active performer in both Classical and Jazz idioms since the age of 14. He is a graduate of the Julliard School and studied under Rainer C. DelIntinis and Myron Bloom.

He has been a guest instructor at the University of Massachusetts, Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University and horn teacher at Amherst and Williams Colleges. He has also performed extensively throughout the U.S., Europe and Asia.

Long-time Police Commissioner Armand Maheux is retiring after having proudly served as a Commissioner in Laconia for 22 years. The Police Department is having a light farewell luncheon for Commissioner Maheux on October 19 at noon at the PD building on New Salem St. Everyone is invited to stop by and wish him well!
